Hijacker Quizzed in '63 On RFK Plot

DALLAS, Tex., Feb. 2 (AP) — National Archives documents show that Garrett B. Trapnell, the man shot and captured Saturday following the hijacking of an airliner in New York, was questioned by FBI agents concerning a plot to kill former Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy.

Federal agents were told Aug. 19, 1963, that Trapnell had met with three Cuban refugees who were planning to kidnap and kill Robert Kennedy. The statements were given by Trapnell.

The Dallas News reported Tuesday in a dispatch from its Washington bureau that the material is contained in 23 pages of documents on file at the archives.

The FBI questioned Trapnell again Nov. 23, 1963—the day after John F. Kennedy was assassinated—at which time he substituted the name "Oswaldo" for one of the Cuban refugees with whom he said he had met in Miami, Fla., in May, 1963.
